DEDICATION

Dr. George L. Glauner

Dr. George L. Glauner, professor of history has been at West Virginia Wesleyan College for 42 years. He joined the faculty in 1923.

Dr. Glauner is a graduate of Otterbein college in Westerville, Ohio, Syracuse university in Syracuse and Utica, New York, and Ohio State university in Columbus, Ohio where he received his doctorate.

President Stanley H. Martin recently appointed Dr. Glauner chairman of the Senior Faculty Advisory Council. He and other members of the council will advise the president on matters concerning projection and growth of West Virginia Wesleyan.

It gives the staff great pleasure to dedicate its 1965 MURMURMONTIS to a man such as Dr. George L. Glauner.

WESLEYAN GROWS

West Virginia Wesleyan College is in a continual state of projection and growth. During the past few years, the number of enrolled students has risen surprisingly. Many of the male students now live in town.

The campus is expanding also. Plans are being made for a chapel, a nursing dormitory and several other necessary buildings.

At left; Bruce Copeland plays the trombone at one of Wesleyan's football field shows.

Below; While going to band practice, Sara Moss and Mr. West wonder what this boy is doing.

After much tiresome study in the library, these two must rest.

WESLEYAN GROWS

Wesleyan is continually planning for expansion and growth. Two major additions made this year are the plaza in back of the Administration Building and the art building near the Alumni House on College Avenue.

Above: Wesleyan's plan for expansion looks much different than this aerial shot.

Right: Bobette Shafer and Dick Owen relax on the front lawn of Wesleyan's campus.

Growth and projection are present always in the minds of the faculty and administration. As well as growing in number, the faculty are growing in ideas and methods of teaching.

Dr. George L. Glauner is chairman of the Senior Faculty Advisory Council, which is created to aid in advising the president on matters concerning growth and projection of Wesleyan. Other members of the faculty and administration participate in similar activities.

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

PRESIDENT OF THE COLLEGE

"Life has many dimensions but one of the most important is that of time—past, present and future." These words of President Stanley H. Martin convey not only the keeping of traditions, but also the growth of Wesleyan in the future.

Growth, being a creative process, contributes much to Wesleyan's past and present and requires great strength of mind and body to secure a promising future.

STANLEY H. MARTIN

VICE PRESIDENT

Dr. Robert B. Nemeschy, a native of western New York state, is in his first year as vice-president of West Virginia Wesleyan College. His principal responsibility is development.

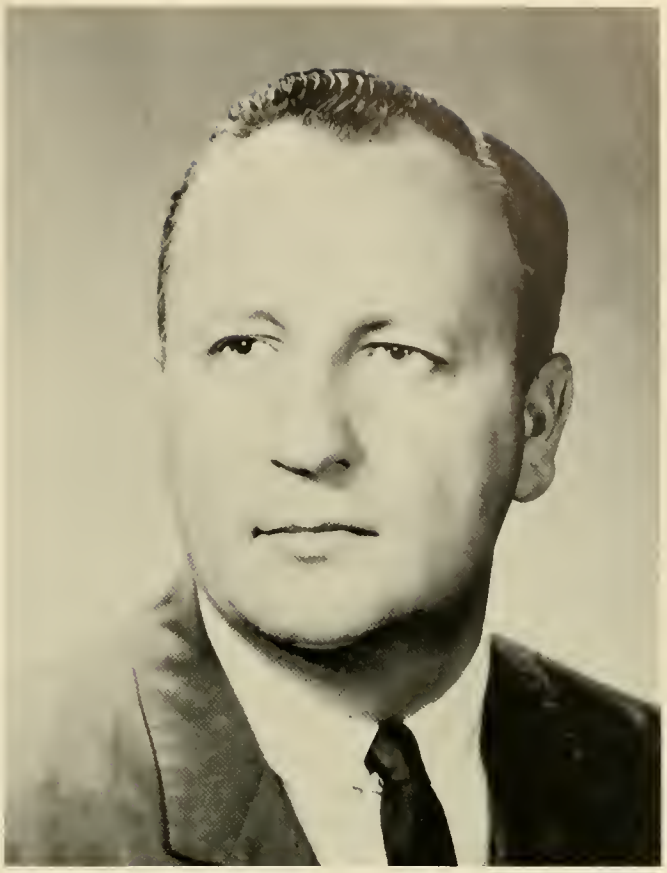
Before coming to Wesleyan, the new college officer served the previous three years as director of development from the Inter American University of Puerto Rico with headquarters in New York City. His achievements and honors are many. In addition to membership in the national campus leadership fraternity, Omicron Delta Kappa, Dr. Nemeschy is a member of education, sociology, German, and philosophy national honorary societies.

ROBERT NEMESCHY

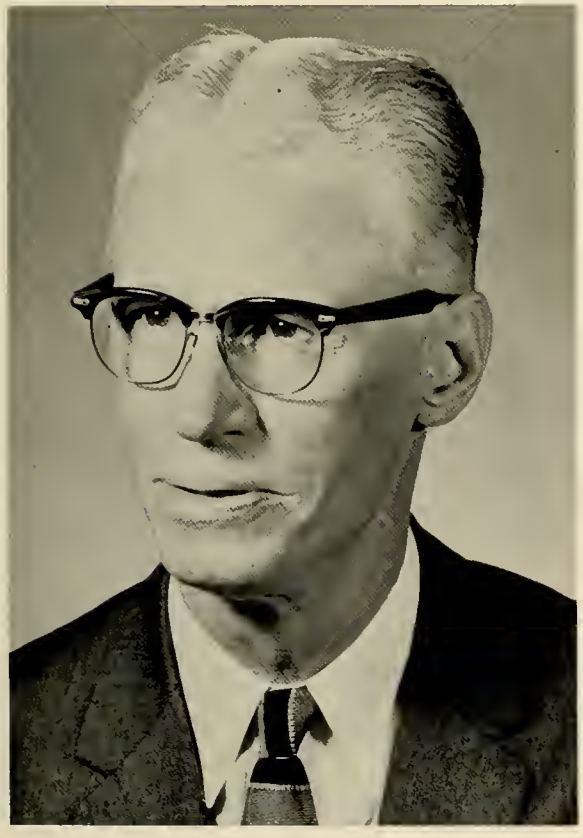
DEAN OF THE COLLEGE

Competently serving as Dean of the College, Orlo J. Strunk, Jr., is the chief disciplinary officer. He also supervises the educational program and aids in selecting faculty personnel. In addition to these duties, Dean Strunk assists with the editing of the West Virginia Wesleyan College Bulletin and has written several books and magazine articles on his favorite subjects, religion and psychology.

Dean Strunk is one of those "hands" who is endowed with the ability to coordinate the hand and the mind to produce works of literary recognition. His importance to Wesleyan's campus can not be underestimated.



ORLO STRUNK



TREASURER

"Oh, no! More money . . ." Although this cry prevails among students, all realize that money is necessary for a college education. Management of these finances calls for an efficient treasurer, in which capacity Mr. Heyward A. Williams serves Wesleyan. His tasks include the collection of student fees for tuition, room, and board, as well as the supervision of the distribution of the college yearly income. As the Wesleyan community continues to expand, the treasurer's role becomes increasingly important.

HEYWARD A. WILLIAMS

CHAPLAIN

As well as serving Wesleyan as Chaplain, Sidney L. Davis plans and directs the chapel services, makes arrangements for speakers, and student discussions with these speakers, and teaches courses of Bible. In addition, Reverend Davis counsels students and serves as advisor to the exchange students.

SIDNEY T. DAVIS

DEAN OF STUDENTS

Mr. Richard Cunningham, Dean of Students, serves the needs of the college students by guiding Wesleyan in such areas as student housing, extracurricular and social modes of the student body. During his years at Wesleyan, through his enthusiastic and close contact with the students, he has become one of the most respected administrators of the "Wesleyan family".

RICHARD A. CUNNINGHAM

DEAN OF WOMEN

Dr. Marion McBrair, in her capacity as Dean of Women, is continuing to serve the women of Wesleyan in an efficient and charming manner.

Furthering her attempt to establish new policies and to bring back some of the traditional ones, Dean McBrair counsels women students with many of their problems and advises the administration in needed improvements.

MARION McBRAIR

DEAN OF MEN

One of the younger administrators, "Sam" Ross has as his duties, counseling individuals and groups, Student Aid, men's housing and advising and maintaining the general good conduct of the men students.

SAMUEL ROSS

REGISTRAR

Registering students, maintaining permanent records, scheduling examinations, preparing transcripts, writing some catalogue copy, teaching in the Business Department—these are just some of the duties of Mr. Patton Nickell, as Registrar of Wesleyan. Mr. Nickell worked in the admissions office during his undergraduate years at Wesleyan before assuming his present position. Under his direction, a new system of registration was initiated.

PATTON L. NICKELL

As College Hostess, Miss Nellie G. Wilson, serves Wesleyan as the official greeter of all visitors to the campus. In charge of reception and entertainment, she keeps busy in such a capacity.

Miss Wilson also serves as Head Resident at Jenkins Hall, and helps to maintain general etiquette in Benedum dining room. She is a woman, indeed beloved by the students of Wesleyan.

NELLIE WILSON

DIRECTOR OF ALUMNI AFFAIRS

In his capacity as the Director of Alumni Affairs, Mr. Walter R. Collins' main concern is that of keeping in contact with the alumni and of maintaining their records. Editing the "Sundial" and organizing the annual alumni appeal are also the duties of his position. He promotes reunions and alumni Homecoming activities.

Mr. Collins

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INFORMATION

As co-worker with Mr. Collins, Mr. Creel S. Cornwell keeps the public informed about Wesleyan. This is done through the release of information, articles, pictures, and moving pictures to newspapers, magazines, periodicals, radio, and television stations.

Mr. Cornwell

Mr. Miller

William D. Miller is a Duke University Seminary student and is serving an internship at Wesleyan in preparation for the campus ministry. He works closely with the M.S.M. and serves as their advisor.

The Greek social sororities and fraternities play a major role in Wesleyan's social calendar. Along with individual functions, the Greek's sponsor Greek Week-End and May Week-End. They also select candidates to compete for Mur-murmontis Queen. More than 550 Wesleyan students belong to a Greek social organization.

GREEKS

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

The Panhellenic Council was established to create and maintain good relations between the sororities on Wesleyan's campus. The council co-ordinates the activities of the four sororities and acts as a judiciary board for them. This year, under the direction of president, Trudy Rannells and under the advisorship of Dean Marion McBrair, Panhellenic was involved in different activities. The activities include Formal and Informal Rush, Greek Week, and Panhellenic Dinner. The meetings of the Panhellenic Council are held once a week in one of the sorority suites. The Council this year has definitely been of effective assistance to all of the sororities.

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL

Inter-Fraternity Council was established on Wesleyan's campus to organize the fraternities into one united group. Today it serves as the governing body of these fraternities, setting up rules for rushing and settling any disputes which might arise among the five groups. The activities of I.F.C. include co-ordinating Greek Week and Campus intramurals. This year Inter-Fraternity Council was under the direction of president Pete Evans.

May Queen and ADPi Attendants

From May 1964 to May 1965, ADPi's are always on the move. Whether sweethearts, scholars, athletes, or campus leaders, Alpha Delta Pi is well represented in all areas.

Five ADPi's adorned the 1964 May Court; Lynn Nelson, who was the Queen of May, Fran Benson, Nancy Houston, Lois Bradbury, and Barbara Burns. For Homecoming Lois Bradbury and Judi Lemon were selected as senior representatives. The ADPi's "Octopus" won first place, along with first place for On-Campus Decoration. Janet Bitzer and Barbara Burns were chosen Sweethearts of Theta Chi and Delta Xi respectively.

"Octopi The End-Zone"

The social functions of this year have included slumber parties, social parties, teas, and receptions. The "Pledge Dance" was held in December for our 21 new pledges. The highlight of the year was the annual Black and White Diamond Formal which was held in honor of the Seniors.

Last and probably most important in the 1964-65 highlights are ones that will never get a trophy or even applause. Whether times of sisterly fellowship in the sorority suite or buying shoes and fixing clothes for a needy family at Christmas. These make a sisterhood worthwhile.

Workout Time for Pledges

This is the 17th year that Alpha Omicron Chapter has represented Alpha Gamma Delta national fraternity on Wesleyan's campus. Alpha Gamma Delta stresses scholarship, leadership, and active participation in all college functions. Alpha Gam's float, "It's A Sham-Poo Old West Liberty Can't Win," won second place at Homecoming while sisters Katy O'Brien and Karen Delbrugge were Sophomore and Junior attendants to the Queen. Alpha Gam won the Scholarship trophy for the eighth consecutive semester.

Other activities have included a pledge formal held at the Coach and Four honoring the twenty-one new pledges. A spring formal and picnic are held each year honoring the Seniors. Theme parties have included a Hobo Party and a Mad Party.

The fraternity's altruistic project for this year goes toward Crippled Children's counselor training centers.

"Homecoming Float"

"I've got it!"

The Alpha Xi's ended last year's activities by winning the first place May Sing trophy for the second consecutive year. The Alpha Xi's on the May Day court were Ann Royse and Brenda Blake, senior attendants, and Polly Lowe, freshman attendant. Then at the Awards Assembly Alice Crayton was announced as the Murmurmonits Queen and "Cookie" Bridgeman was given the Wesley Ann award.

The fall term began with a retreat to plan the year's activities, the first of which was Homecoming. Karen Jennings and Alice Crayton, were on the Homecoming court. The "Fuzzies" won the second place trophy for their service project. Next was the Christmas Dance, which honored the 21 fall pledges. The Alpha Xi's had two Christmas parties, one for underprivileged children with the Theta Xi's and the other with the pledges in the form of a shower for the sorority room.

Other social functions were the Sweetheart dance, "Hearts and Flowers" and the Rose Formal. The first honored the sweetheart, Mr. Hicks and the 10 second semester pledges and the latter dance honored the seniors.

"Hi, Santa."

"Darn, he's late again."

"We're on candid camera."

The year 1964 was one of progress through activity for the sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha.

Homecoming was a flurry of activity including a float, an alumni tea and campus decorations.

Following our many traditions, Zeta Tau Alpha held a dessert for the fraternities on campus. This year desserts were held for Phi Sigma Epsilon and Kappa Alpha Order. At Christmas the sisters enjoyed caroling for the hospitals in town and held a Christmas party where each girl gave a Christmas present to the sorority suite.

Second semester activities were even more varied. A Sister Supper was held in January to honor all the big and little sisters. A Valentine's Dance, the New Initiates Dinner, the Spring Pledge Dance, and the Senior Banquet were other social functions the sisters enjoyed. Greek Week was a special success with the Zetas placing second in the sports events.

Even with all these activities the actives were first in scholarship second semester.

Our Spring Week-End started out with a coke and chips party on April 30th. May 1st was State Day for the Zetas and the annual Spring Formal was held at Lake Riley that night. The week-end's activities were rounded out with a picnic at Audra State Park on May 2nd. The year was ended with a two day Spring Retreat at a cabin on the river, where plans were made for the coming year.

The sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha can look back on a year filled with work and fun, but most of all a year filled with the joy of sisterhood.

"I'll show 'em how to dance."

Home of Chi Phi Men

The years of 1964-65 are years long to be remembered for the brothers of Chi Phi. It was the period of colonization for Wesleyan's fifth national fraternity.

September, 1964, brought approval from Chi Phi and West Virginia Wesleyan College for the establishment of the Delta Xi Colony of The Chi Phi Fraternity.

From our home at 67 South Kanawha Street, we, the men of scarlet and blue enter every phase of campus life from publications to athletics, from student government to the Dean's List.

Homecoming was its usual success with the brothers taking an active part in all the festivities. The fall social functions led to numerous winter successes as the Chi Phi men held their Winter Formal in Elkins. Sweetheart weekend this Spring was a total success. The weekend was the scene for the official chartering of the national fraternity of Chi Phi on the college campus. College officials, national officers and the brothers and their dates were on hand to usher in the new phase of life for the relatively young local fraternity. Chi Phi Sweetheart is Barbara Burns.

Kappa Alpha is the oldest national fraternity on Wesleyan's campus. Throughout this year Beta Chi chapter along with the other chapters will be observing a centennial celebration marking one-hundred years of existence.

This year the Inter-Fraternity Scholarship is on the shelves of 66 S. Kanawha Street.

K.A.'s Old South Weekend is traditionally a socially unique affair where the fraternity secedes from Wesleyan's campus and from the town of Buckhannon. The week-end also includes a picnic, a parade, and the high point of the week-end, the Dixie Ball.

Informal house parties, "The Convivium"—the celebration of Robert E. Lee's birthday, and the Sweetheart Dance made up a part of the K.A. social calendar this year.

The fraternity sweetheart is Rita Lawrence.

Brothers Planting the Victory Flag

The Kappa Tau Chapter of Theta Xi has enjoyed a great deal of success and progress since celebrating the one-hundredth anniversary of the Fraternity's founding on April 29, 1964.

After scoring a second place May Sing victory the Brothers captured first place in the intramurals softball competition. This fall Theta Xi continued its victory string at Homecoming with a first place win in House Decorations followed by the overall Homecoming Trophy. First place victories in the "A" and "B" League intramural football and "A" and "C" League volleyball competition brought four more trophies to the chapter house.

Picnics, hayrides, house parties, a Pledge Dance both semesters, the Winter Dance and our spring formal the Iris Ball were highlights in the social realm.

A Christmas Party with the Alpha Xi's for underprivileged youngsters was a success, plus an Easter Egg Hunt.

Serving as Sweetheart this year is Rosemary Decatur.

Growth at Wesleyan is noted in the increased number of campus organizations which continue to function or which are newly formed. This year we had the largest number of active organizations that has ever existed on this campus.

More students are becoming aware of the vast opportunity to pursue their interests through clubs. The membership of the various clubs has more than doubled in the last four years.

WOMEN STUDENT COUNSELORS 1964-1965

The first person I remember seeing during Orientation Week was my counselor standing in the front hallway with a big smile on her face. She seemed so nice and friendly as she greeted me and took me to my room. And that is practically the story of the whole year. My counselor was always ready to help me with anything. She shared my joys and my difficulties. The two student counselors who live in our hall wing were our guides, friends and confidantes. This was the spirit of all the counselors last year, and yours will be the same.

I promise not to make any noise, anymore.

The girls made Christmas tree ornaments to earn money for their treasury. They also had a dinner for nursing students and faculty. At this dinner the graduating seniors presented a skit and a class gift.

This is the Central Committee of

STUDENT SERVICE PROJECT

The purpose of this newly formed group is to work with the needy and the potential high school drop-outs and to show them the importance of getting an education. The group is divided into five areas: big brother-big sister program, tutorial, recreation, work with Weston State Hospital, and home management.

The big brother-big sister and the tutorial sections work directly with both junior and senior high school youngsters by giving them encouragement and helping them realize the need for staying in school. The central committee makes the assignments and then leaves it to the individual college student to progress at his own speed.

On Saturday mornings the Student Center is open to all concerned with the program for various kinds of activities such as bowling, ping-pong, and pool. They can also go swimming. The service teams which travel to Weston busy themselves planning and working with the patients on various recreation projects such as team sports and parties.

The Home Management section is involved in the teaching of meal planning and various sewing and cooking skills to the parents of the students involved. Plans such as the hot lunch program for next year are under way. The SSP house on Pocohontas street has been the scene of much activity this year. Over one hundred Wesleyan students have participated in this new group, founded in 1964.

Such sports as swimming, soccer and girls' hockey have been added recently to the list of regular inter-collegiate activities. With more athletics coming into existence at Wesleyan, many more students participate in at least one sport. Because of the added number of sports, each student has an opportunity to engage in the sport that interests him or her most.

With each passing year, Wesleyan finds another activity that is gradually becoming a tradition of the college. Recently added to the list is the Awards' Assembly, which is held once in the fall and once in the spring to recognize and award students outstanding in a certain area.

Among Wesleyan's traditions are: Freshman Week, Homecoming, Winter at Wesleyan, Murmurmontis Queen and Graduation.

TRADITIONS

HERE COME THE FRESHMEN

Orientation begins as armloads of clothing and equipment are hauled to the rooms.

Freshmen enter West Virginia Wesleyan College in a whirlwind of orientation called Freshman Week. This is a time when new students are able to adjust to their new surroundings and to each other. This week is filled with varied activities such as a picnic, a freshman and campus mixer, testing, and famed beanies.

Although, near the end, registration is one of the most memorable parts of the week. Many hours are spent poring over schedules and receiving class cards.

All these things aid in helping us become a part of the new life at Wesleyan.

Arm space is small.

Families and lost students may be seen wandering around campus.

HOMECOMING 1964

The festivities of Homecoming 1964 begin with the Queen's Coronation. Immediately following is a reception for students, alumni and guests. The week-end continues at a steady pace with a parade, picnic, football game, and open house. The student and alumni dances on Saturday night climax the week-end. A Sunday afternoon Hootenanny brings the week-end to a close.

WINTER AT WESLEYAN

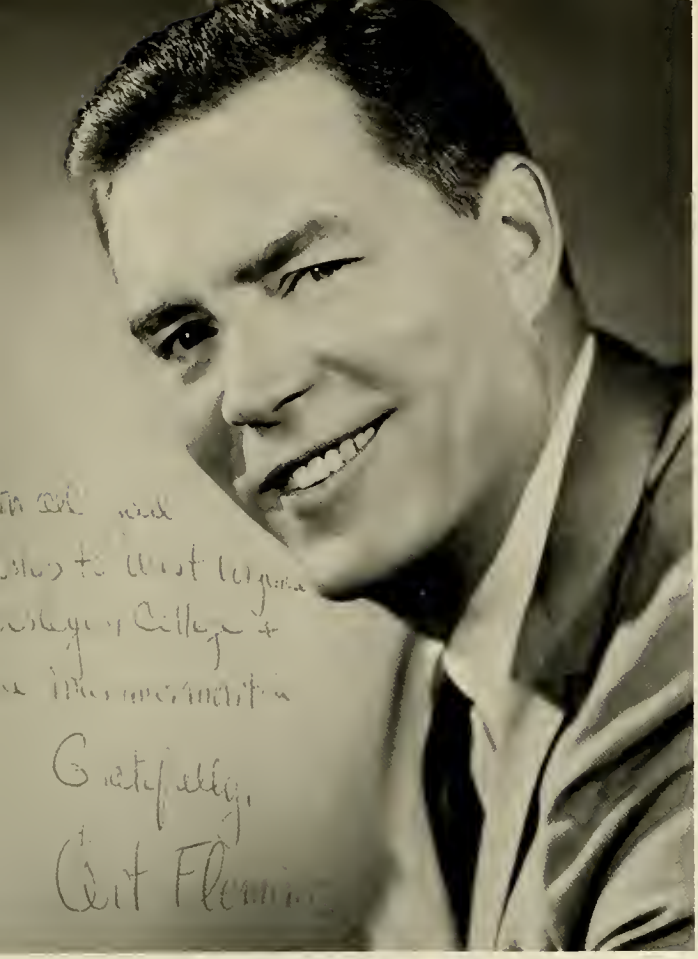
Winter brings the snow, and lots of it! From these crisp white scenes an appreciation for quiet beauty develops, along with a chance to express a natural yearning for fun.

Wesleyan's snow covered grounds are used to their best advantage.

This scene and others like it bring out respect for the beauty of snow and its creations.

The sun comes out and it's muddy footprints in the halls for a few days.

. . . and it's more fun in the snow.



Murmurmontis Queen for 1965 is Miss Sharon Schroder, nominated by Alpha Xi Delta Sorority. Sharon is an Elementary Education major from Sparta, New Jersey. She is an active member in the sorority, presiding as both the Social Chairman and the Scholarship Chairman.

May 20th, 1965.

Dear Miss Lantz,

The pictures of the candidates for Murmurmontis Queen were indeed most attractive, and I found it very difficult to choose a first, second and third winner. However, after much deliberating I have marked my choices on the back of the pictures.

As the names of the young ladies were not included, I am unable to congratulate them individually. So will you please convey good wishes to each of them.

Thank you for this honor, and continued success to you, the girls, and the Murmurmontis!

Most sincerely,

Art Fleming

GREEK WEEK

One of the traditional events of Wesleyan's Greek Week is the crowning of King Zeus and Queen Hera. This year couples were nominated from each Sorority and Fraternity. The winning couple was Susan Castiller, an Alpha Gamma Delta and Ed Shoemaker, a member of the Kappa Alpha Order.

The crowning of the King and Queen was an exciting beginning of a weekend of festivities.

Ross Field was the scene of the annual Greek Week events participated in by each of the Greek-Letter organizations on campus.

These were such events as a swimming meet in the morning, relay races, a balloon shaving contest, an egg throwing contest, and a centipede race.

May Queen

May Queen Karen Jennings is crowned by Pat Lattore.

One of the main events of the May Weekend is the crowning of the May Queen. This year was no exception. The Queen was crowned Friday evening at the May Sing. Karen and her court were then serenaded by the groups participating in the sing.

Parents and visitors of Wesleyan students watch more than two hundred seniors receive diplomas from Dr. Stanley H. Martin, May 30, 1965. Many ambitions lie in the minds of the new graduates; marriage, graduate school, military service, employment. Whatever the desires of these people may be, everyone wishes the best of luck to the graduating class of 1965.
